“With such sadness, and yet pride, I remember the life of Sis. Oxendine. She lived her life with such quiet dignity, and real courage that most of us lacked. Her love for her God, her precious sons, and her friends is a legacy we who had the privilege to know her can cherish.

“The once wide circle is closing here on this side, but as each leaves here, those who are in the presence of God greet the newcomers and the circle of loved ones widens as they enter into eternity. May God bless you, Cousins, as you mourn the passing of your mother, sister, and first cousin (there is only Aunt Eula and Katherine left from the Bowens side) know that Jesus has each of you in His Arms. I will miss Audrey's smile and chuckle, but once again, our loss is Heaven's gain.
