“ Oh, how I am going to miss Barbara’s smile, laughter, and ability to take any situation and find the positive side. Many funny stories were shared between her, Debbie Dugger McCrary and me at Debbie’s hair shop and at her niece’s nail salon, J’Clare’s, when Wendy was doing my nails. I used to tell Wendy , “ How can you have a bad day when Barbara keeps you in stitches?” Barbara came to Seekers Book Club a couple of times but as her health declined she would call to find out what we were reading and share her thoughts with me. May God comfort you, husband, sons, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, “ in - laws”, extended family and friends with abundant peace through this difficult time. You will remain in my thoughts and prayers.
