

Ms. Brenda Goins

May 4, 1954 - May 28, 2022

Brenda Goins, 68, gave up her long courageous battle with cancer on May 28 at the Johnson City Medical Center. She was born May 4, 1954, to the late Bertha Mae Thomas and Clyde Price in Roan Mountain. Also preceding her were her brothers Larry “Buck” Thomas, Lawrence Thomas, Terry Thomas, and her sister Sheila Thomas.

To cherish her memory, Brenda leaves her children, Brian Goins, Lisa Goins, and Kandi Goins, all of Johnson City; two sisters, Mary Gretta Beam of Johnson City and Paulett “Paula” Thomas-Story of Hoover, Alabama; and grandchildren, Marcus Goins, Shay Morgan, and Brianna Goins.

Brenda had two main loves in her life-flowers and little children. Her grandchildren gave her great joy, but that love extended elsewhere. She was in the Head Start classroom for 33 years and left the classroom only due to her health problems. She often called the little ones her kiddos, and with that many years, she dearly loved nearly 1,000 children. While with Head Start, she became close to everyone who worked with her; teachers, parents, social workers, and cooks. She was dearly loved.

Her other love of gardening showed in plants in her classroom, her home, and in a parent meeting room. The windows in that meeting room were lined with Christmas Cactus that showed her green thumb. She worried when her health did not allow her to work with her flowers around her home but continued talking about what she did have and what she would like to plant.

Brenda was a private, reserved, strong woman who did not want people to fuss over her. She was truly a “Still waters run deep.” woman. For this reason, she did not want services but only for people to remember her love and share that love with others.

“ Mrs. Goins was one of the sweetest, caring women I've never to meet in my lifetime. I was fortunate enough to start my Head Start career as her assistant. She taught me more than she could ever know. She took me under her wing and made me feel like family. She called me Sister and I love her 💕 I left Tennessee and moved to South Carolina but she was one of the things I missed the most. I love you sister...keep saving me a seat until we meet again. God bless all who love her...there are many ❤️
