

Mr. Earl L. Dennis

April 18, 1980 - November 19, 2025

Mr. Earl Landon Dennis was born on April 18, 1980, in Johnson City, Tennessee, to the late Elizabeth Diane Brown (Dennis). Later, she married Moses Brown, and they stayed married until her passing.

Earl, also known as "Big E" by his friends, attended Stratton Elementary School, Liberty Bell Middle School, and Science Hill High School. He also received college course credit while in Georgia. Earl worked many jobs through the years, but gravitated toward customer service and service industry jobs. Earl was a spiritual and God fearing man.

Earl enjoyed spending time with his sister Mary and his many friends. He loved to dance, draw, and just be himself. He was shy around the ladies, often speaking under his breath, but also very humorous. He would often remark, "Stop playing," and his favorite saying was, "Huhh?" Big E had a caring heart and was protective of his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Brown; grandparents, Earl and Mary Elizabeth Dennis (Fields); uncle, Terry Dennis; and aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Big E is survived by his father, Moses "Elroy" Brown; children, Krissiana Thompson of Johnson City, Rontrey Mitchem of Johnson City, Alyssa Dennis, Jamel Dennis, and Kayden Pope; four grandchildren; siblings, Mary E. Dennis, Vanessa R. Dennis (Hodges) of Hinesville, Georgia; Tremayne Ford of Wilmington, North Carolina; and Kelvin Brown of Hinesville; nieces and nephews, Neleah Dennis, Scotlynn Johnson, Kamora Fuquay, Daishoun Moriera, and Tateyanna Pascal; uncles, William Dennis of Knoxville, Tennessee, Earl D. Dennis of El Paso, Texas, and Robert Dennis of Johnson City; aunt, Connie Bailey of Homestead, Florida; and many more family and friends.
