“ I worked with Evelyn at Walmart many years ago while I was in college and she was a lady of class but more importantly a Christian example to others.

“ I knew her as my Ebbie. She cared for me and my siblings from 1960 until 1968. She was who I cried for when daddy spanked me. She was such a wonderful person. Mother and daddy loved Evelyn too. I remember her telling me the story about the white fur coat mother and daddy gave her for Christmas one year. I remembered her face when she opened that big box. Daddy could always crack Ebbie up by simply saying “crush “. She would laugh and laugh and so would we. She was a big part of our family. She took care of us 4 Jones children and will be remembered with great love and appreciation. She is with God now, that is for sure. Thanks fir the many years of love Ebbie.

Many memories and good times too numerous to count. Our Elders are returning to the Lord but they all gave us a good foundation to carrying on the message for future generations. WE are the Elders now...we must live up to our legacy. I pray God's Peace and Comfort for our entire family and friends today and in the days to come. Amen
