

Ms. Gloria Jean Parson McClinton

September 11, 1953 - July 4, 2022

Gloria Jean Parson McClinton went to be with the Lord on July 4, 2022, at 11:11 pm at the Johnson City Medical Center Hospital following a 3-year illness.

Gloria was a native of Quitman, Georgia but called Johnson City her home for the last 46 years. Gloria graduated from the Brooks County school system in Quitman, where she was in the choir and the cheerleading squad. After moving to Johnson City, Gloria attended Steed College and Northeast State University of Elizabethton, where she received her Associate's Degree in bookkeeping and accounting. Gloria began her career in Johnson City as an employee of SunTrust Bank and the JC Boys and Girls Club. Gloria retired from the Johnson City School system in 2019 after 13 years of service. Gloria was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church, where she served faithfully for over 40 years in different capacities such as Sunday School Superintendent / Teacher, Choir Director/ Member, Youth Leader, and Treasurer. Gloria will truly be missed by her Mount Olive Baptist Church Family and friends.

Gloria was preceded in death by her husband Bobby Joe McClinton in February of 2006; her parents, Elzie and Marie Parson; one sister, Willie Belle Dixon; and two brothers, Elzie Coates and Robert Lee Parson.

Gloria leaves to cherish her memory a daughter, Rachael Adele McClinton, of the home; three grandsons, Adarius McClinton- Morrison, Amarion McClinton, and Avontae McClinton, also of the home; four sisters, Celesta M. (Joseph) Williams of Valdosta, Ga., Lillie P. Butler of Jacksonville Florida, Linda P. Demps, and Carrie M. Parson both of Quitman Ga; one brother, William E. (Marie) Parson of Jacksonville Florida; a special sister/friend, Vanessa Robinson of Johnson City; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended McMillian family.

Memorial services for Ms. Gloria McClinton will be conducted Saturday, July 9, 2022, at 2 pm from Mount Olive Baptist Church, 810 Montgomery Street. The family will receive friends from 1 pm until the hour of service.
