

Mr. James R. Oliphant

June 22, 2024

James Robert Oliphant departed this life on June 22, 2024, in Madison, Tennessee. James, nicknamed "James Knott," was born in Augusta, Georgia, to James Oliphant and Francis Brooks.

James worked at Smith Brothers' Car Wash and J.C. Bedding Company. In his spare time, he loved listening to old-school music and watching baseball. In his youth, he played in the Babe Ruth Baseball League. James had a loving soul and a kind heart. He often helped others through difficult times.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Oliphant; mother, Francis Brooks; paternal grandparents, Gentle and Carrie Oliphant; maternal grandparents, John and Bertha Williams; and sister, Mary Alice Oliphant.

To cherish his memory, James leaves behind his siblings, Teresa Williams-Brown, Louise Williams, Darlene (John) Story, and Anthony Oliphant, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ Uncle James Robert, I will always remember how I learned how to swim when I was five yrs old and we was in Florida and at the beach and you threw me in the ocean and dared me to get out until I knew how to swim, well I did learn and the small things you remember help you to realize that some lessons are needed in life to know how to keep going and moving until you have it down packed, I will miss you and rest easy!!!
