“ I went to school with Jerry Erwin at Tennessee Preparatory School (TPS) in the early 1970's. We nicknamed him "Jap" because he had eyes like a Japanese! He did not mind it and took it in good stride! He worked as a security guard at TPS. He treated everyone with kindness. He will truly be missed! My condolences go out to his family and friends! Greg Owens (Fellow student at Tennessee Preparatory School (TPS) 1971-1980

“ Jerry was the best person you could have ever worked with. He was like a papaw to me. If I ever needa advice or help he was the one to talk too. He got me hooked on lottery tickets. He was my best friend at work. Rest easy my papaw ❤️ I'll always remember what you told me. "If anyone ever tries to mess with you tell them your japs babygirl" missing your sweet soul.

so sorry Beth. You two were all he talked about when I saw him. He was so proud of the boy!! My heart hurts for his loss...he was a wise and super intelligent man. I was so proud of him when he graduated from ETSU !! Sonny He and I had long discussions on the grounds of ETSU solving the worlds problems.

“ Jerry Ervin was a dear friend to me. I enjoyed being in his presence and learning from his wisdom. He always found JOY in every life experience. Jerry had the best personality, hilarious humor, always uplifting, and just a loving, caring soul. I will truly miss his friendship. My condolences go out to his sister, his son, and the rest of his family.

Rest in Peace sweet Jap!! You will be seriously missed by me and my family. You brought such encounters of intelligence and wisdom to our family. May you and Sonny talk about all the world cures of our political systems and how to fix 'em. Much Love sending up to you.
