

John Fletcher Birchette III

May 24, 1945 - August 21, 2017

“The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom do I fear? The Lord is my life’s refuge”

John Fletcher Birchette III, 72, Johnson City, Tennessee, slipped peacefully from his earthly vessel into the arms of his Heavenly Father at his residence following a valiant struggle with a lengthy illness on the morning of Monday, August 21, 2017 as his beloved wife and son kept vigil by his side.

He was born May 24, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Rev. John F. Birchette Jr. and Bessie Hurt Birchette and moved with his parents to Johnson City where he entered second grade at Dunbar Elementary School and his father became the pastor of Thankful Baptist Church.

Fletcher, as he was affectionately known, was a proud alumnus of Langston High School class of 1962. He continued his education at two institutions of higher learning, his father’s alma mater, Morehouse College, Atlanta Georgia and his mother’s alma mater, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee.

He embraced his patriotic call to duty by serving in the Army National Guard. On August 28, 1965 he married Sarah Ann Avery whom he devotedly shared a union of almost 52 years.

Fletcher was an employee of Veterans Administration, Mountain Home, Tennessee from which he retired after thirty plus years where he was known as a “gentle giant with a firm handshake, kind heart, and reassuring bright smile”.

He served as President and Funeral Director of Birchette Mortuary Incorporated, Johnson City, Tennessee for over thirty years where he honored his late father’s motto “we are a service to the community; therefore, we will always do unto others as we would have them do unto us” as central to the business. He was a trusted confidant and always provided assistance whether it was spiritual, financial, sustenance or other which eased many people’s burdens.

Fletcher was a long time member of Thankful Baptist Church where he served the congregation as a Deacon and was a member of the Men’s Choir and he was lovingly referred to as the “hummer”. He was also a member of the Thankful Baptist Brotherhood. He embraced his faith and demonstrated his servitude through humility toward those whom he met and it was his compassion that led those who knew him to describe him as being “a friend to all.” One of his favorite passages of scripture was Psalm 27:5 “For in the day of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me, he shall set me upon a rock”. It gave him courage and fortitude to not only face challenges in his life, but offer it as encouragement to others who faced obstacles whether it was health issues, bereavement, wavering faith, or decisions. He was especially concerned with youth choosing positive paths to education and gainful employment as well their needs being met. Always a gentleman he extended his concern to the elderly to ensure that they were cared for with dignity even it meant he was the source of the funds which was always done anonymously.

It was his integrity and commitment to serve others that enabled him to willingly belong to organizations and clubs, serve on numerous civic committees, and Boards of Directors to include Johnson City Power Board,

Johnson City Senior Citizens Center, Langston Heritage Group, Washington County-Johnson City NAACP, and Pro-To Club, Inc. He did not like accolades and always preferred to not be in the limelight; however, on October 21, 2006, the City of Johnson City recognized him by naming a day in his honor.

In later years until Fletcher's health ceased to allow him the freedom to do so, he enjoyed weekly lunches and annual dinners with his "May birthday buddies" which included John Russaw, James Whiteside, Ralph Davis, and William Coleman. His friends from the funeral home industry were many, but Preston McKee of Morris Baker Funeral Home, Johnson City, and Richard A. Clarke of R.A. Clarke Funeral Home, Bristol, Virginia were considered "special".

Fletcher is survived by his wife, Sarah Ann Birchette (of the home); his son, John F. Birchette IV Johnson City, TN ; 3 nieces, Michelle Duncan(Chris), April Deck(Chris), and Shaunice Vaughan; 3 nephews, Mose White, Johnson City, TN., and Brian Smith(Joanne) Charlotte, NC., and William Bundy, Houston, TX.; 5 great- nieces, Nya Lee Deck, Faith Michelle Deck, Mary Katherine Deck, Lawton, OK; Skylar White and Allana French, Johnson City, TN; 8 great-nephews, Caleb Keith Duncan, Noah Christopher Duncan, Lucas Charles Duncan, Ayden White, Landon White, JaMichael Vaughan, Johnson City, TN., James Deck, Michael Joseph Deck, Lawton, OK; 1 sister-in-law, Estelle Vaughan; 1 brother-in-law, Michael Vaughan, Topeka, KS; cousins, Muriel Birchette, Atlanta, GA; Mark Birchette, Brooklyn, NY; G. Craig Birchette, Dallas, TX; Samuel Pierce, Boston, MA; Chase Birchette, Windsor, CT; Gail Goines, James Scott, Eugene Russaw(Christie), Kendall Goines, and Scotty Goines (Erin), James Scott Jr. and Anna Scott Johnson City, TN; Special "Brothers", Rev. Vincent M. Dial and Angelo B. Newman; Extended Family and Friends too numerous to mention and the staff of Birchette Mortuary, Incorporated who know that "To live in the hearts of those we leave behind is not to die”.

The family would like to thank caregiving angels Chasity Scalf and Shamra Killin for the superior love and care they provided him until the last hours of his life. Mountain States Hospice, Gentiva Physical Therapy, Dr. Kevin Sweet and Dr. Nathaniel Whaley.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday August 26, 2017 at Thankful Baptist Church in Jonson City. The family will receive friends from 11:30 am-1:00 pm prior to the service at the church. Interment will follow at Washington County Memory Gardens in Johnson City.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Mrs. Sarah Birchette and son & family. I was sadden to hear of your loved one passing. My first husband, Jerry W. Owens was a very good friend from elementary school through High School. When Jerry passed away, Mr. Birchette was such a blessing to me and my family. He handled everything with a special attention for his friend, and my husband. He will be missed by many! God Bless and comfort you for we know he is in a better place.

“ The thing I remember most about my Cousin Fletcher was that he personified "family." Family meant the world to him, and he would do the world for his family. He had our back, through thick and thin, and was always calm, calming and comforting, with a warm smile, quick wit and helping hand.

Fletcher got it honestly, from his father, Rev. Birchette, so he obviously came from fine stock, which shows in John IV as well, so it runs in the family. Although Fletcher didn't preach, he practiced--practiced being the best son, husband, father, relative, friend and man he could be, and by all accounts, he did it well.

A Big Man, with even a Bigger Heart, Fletcher will be dearly missed by all who loved him and that he touched in life.

Sure will miss you, Cuz, but rest in well-deserved peace!!

Sincerely with love,

Craig Birchette

I remember my grandmother living on Boone St. not far from the Birchette's house. They were all kind and loving to me and my little sister. I used to ride my trike by their house because it had a longer sidewalk. Much love and respect for Fletcher Birchette. RIP.

We love you dearly!!!

Lydia and Lee

To Those I Love

*If I should ever leave you whom I love
To go along the Silent Way, grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you there.
(I'd come-- I'd come, could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?)
And when you hear a song or see a bird
I loved, please do not let the thought of me
Be sad... for I am loving you just as I always have... You were so good to me!
There are so many things I wanted still
To do-- so many things to say to you...
Remember that I did not fear... It was Just leaving you that was so hard to face...
We cannot see beyond... But this I know:
I loved you so-- 'twas heaven here with you!*

To Those I Love.

“ My sincere condolences to the Birchette family. Mr. Birchette was truly a compassionate and caring man. I will never forget the guidance provided to me as I prepared for my mother's homegoing in 2000. At the age of 36, and literally making decisions alone, he guided me with such kindness, compassion, and integrity as decisions were made in preparing my mother before sending her back home (4 1/2 hours away... only a couple day before Christmas). Now at the age of 53, I have walked through the process with family and friends and can truly say, no one has done it better than Mr. Fletcher Birchette. He has served his community well. God is pleased. He will forever be remembered. Rest In Heaven. I pray his legacy and service to the community will continue. Respectfully Submitted, Susan Talley-Hamilton. On behalf of Donnie, Susan, DD and Jamieson Hamilton

“ My heart goes out to the family during this time. Mr. Fletcher was an awesome man, he took care of everyone's family as if they were his own blood. I still remember the day he took care of my grandmother when she passed. He was a true blessing to the Johnson City community and surrounding areas. Mr. Fletcher will truly be missed. Love Devan Shade.

“ Words seem so inadequate to express our sympathy to this awesome family in memory of such a loving and caring man of God. Sarah Ann, John and the Birchette family, Fletcher was not only my friend but a confidant. Our community will never be the same without this giant of a man who defined the word caring. On behalf of the Lattany family and New Jerusalem Baptist Church, we express our love, and prayers to you as you celebrate his love, life and legacy.

God bless you is our sincere prayer, Rev. Lester D. & Mrs. Stephanie G. Lattany

Sarah and John and Birchette Staff,

Words can hardly convey how much the love, rich character, life and laughter Fletcher always brought to family and friends in our community, reaching even across the nation, will be missed. Our home is saddened and will miss him dearly.

Our prayers are for your comfort and peace throughout this season as you look to God for guidance. Love you family.

Sarah, John, Extended Family, and Staff of Birchette Mortuary, How saddened our hearts are today as we share in your grief with the passing of Fletcher. It is ironic that on the same day the sun was shaded with the solar eclipse, the bright light of our community dimmed. It has been said that the true measure of a man is the legacy that he leaves when it is reflected in how the world was better because of his presence. I am sure that there is no doubt that not only Johnson City, Washington County and the Tri-Cities region is going to reflect on how blessed we were by the time he was with us, but so many communities across the nation felt his kindness. Fletcher shared with me years ago that his late father, Rev. Birchette, always stressed that the funeral home was a service to the community and he not only embraced his father's philosophy, he built on that foundation and showed the love of Christ through word and deed. Although Fletcher was content to be in the background never seeking accolades and simply passing it forward, he was a role model for so many. His smile and laughter reflected his sense of humor and humility. He simply was a "class act." I am sure his parents smiled down on him many times, and today, as his earthly body gave up his spirit, they welcomed their son into eternity to be with our Lord and Savior. So as you shed your tears, I pray that the Comfort of God's Love warms your heart, and that precious memories bring you laughter and smiles in those "rough moments" of loneliness. Keep in mind that Death is like a comma or pause in a sentence, therefore, you will see him again because he has fought the good fight and kept the faith and the circle broken on this side of Eternity will be unbroken when you meet again. Oh the joys that he now is experiencing because he has no more pain, sorrow, or cares of this world but is basking in the radiance of God's Throne. You will be in our prayers continuously. We love you.

Sarah Ann, John, Birchette family, and Mortuary Staff.

There are no words to express how much Fletcher friendship has meant to our family. He was a dear friend, especially to my brother Leroy. I've heard tales of their many "adventures". He was a pillar of our community and his many deeds and contributions, although often not recognized by some, helped make our community stronger. He will be truly missed. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers.
