

Mr. John Bivins

April 11, 1950 - October 4, 2025

John Lee Bivins Sr., affectionately known as "Big Country," aged 75 of Johnson City, Tennessee, passed away on October 4, 2025, at Franklin Woods Hospital in Johnson City, Tennessee, after a brief illness. John Bivins was born in Emanuel County, Swainsboro, Georgia, on April 11, 1950, to Ben L. Bivins and Ruby Lanier Bivins. He was the eldest of all his siblings.

John attended the Swainsboro Emanuel County Schools. Later, he moved to numerous states and cities. He engaged in a variety of small-scale repairs, maintenance, landscaping, and painting. After traveling to different states, he met and married his beloved wife, Karen Eve Brady Bivins.

He had a passion for fishing, reading the Bible, and helping those in need. John had a big heart and a humorous spirit. He often encouraged others, "You better read that Bible." His loving presence will be missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ben L. and Ruby Bivins; his baby sister, Lizzie Mae Bivins Copeland; his brother, Curtis Lee Bivins; one daughter, Sherry Bivins Johnson; and a grandchild, Shaniqua Johnson.

John leaves to mourn his precious better half, Karen Eve Brady Bivins; his devoted children, three daughters: Tiffani Bivins, Augusta, Georgia, Stephanie Ann Fann, Jonesboro, Georgia, and Nikki Fann, Orlando, Florida; three sons:

Carlton Lee (Nicolette) Bivins, Wadley, Georgia, John Bivins Jr., and Nathaniel Badie, both Swainsboro, Georgia; one sister, Mary Bivins Stuckey, Swainsboro; six brothers, Leroy (Mae) Bivins Sr. Swainsboro, David (Clarice) Bivins, Macon, Georgia, Jerry (Shelia) Allen, Tampa, Florida; Laverne Allen, Ricky Allen, and Richard Allen, all West Palm Beach, Florida; brother-in-law, Richard L. Morris; sister-in-law, Carol (Anthony) McLaughlin; special friends, Patria Rhea and Shirley Keller; and 11 grandchildren, 10 great-grands, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
