

Mr. Linton Dyer

July 7, 1962 - August 18, 2025

Linton George Dyer, affectionately known as "Dada," "Loxley," "Atta Reds," and "Pupa," departed this life on Monday, August 18, 2025, in Kingsport, Tennessee. He was born on July 7, 1962, to Ethlyn Parchment and Cecil Dyer in Naggo Head, Portmore, Jamaica.

As a young boy, Linton attended Angory Basic School and later attended Gregory Park All Age School, where the lessons he learned helped to mold him into the man he later became. He spent time as a tire repairman, painter, janitorial contractor, and businessman. He enjoyed cooking, watching CNN, listening to music, and playing soccer. Linton was very observant and appreciated the finer qualities of life, but was also very jovial and outgoing. He often remarked, "Mi, good," even when he wasn't. He frequently attended Grace Temple Eternal Life Center.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ethlyn Parchment and Cecil Dyer, and his grandparents, Enid Parchment and Uriah Parchment.

To cherish his memory, Linton leaves behind his five children, 11 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, four siblings, one aunt, and one uncle.
