“ I only knew Margaret for a short time, but in that short time I grew to love her so much. She was such a sweet soul, but so hard-headed. Sitting outside with her & Kathy was always a fun time- full of laughs & joking around. It's still unbelievable that you're gone, Margaret, but you will certainly never be forgotten.. I can hear you saying "love you McKenzie". Rest easy sweet angel, love you forever!

“ We were best friends we were like sisters. I used to call her wheels. Everyday we talked and we would sit out and sunbathe. I'm going to miss her dearly. She collect angels and now she has her wings to match them. I know she is sitting in the right side of God. Rest easy Wheels.

“Clicking on the link and reading this obituary for Margaret, it just doesn't seem real at all. As I'm sitting here trying to write a memory down, I don't even know how to put into words of what to say. From the moment I met Margaret something about her just made my heart full. It was like I was meant to work with her and take care of her but I couldn't. She was always so happy, her cute little smile and laugh made my day. Honestly just seeing her and being around her, and talking to her made my day so much better! I might not of been her caregiver but some days I did go and help her by taking out her trash and her sweet girl Precious. I loved Margaret so much, she might not of been blood family to me but in my eyes she was a grandma that I never had. I enjoyed her company. Especially sitting outside on a sunny day and just talking. She was a woman of God and the type of person to help anyone. I would have done anything to take her place in that hospital bed. Margaret, you holding my hand in the hospital and telling me that you love me will always be a memory with me forever. You may be gone but you will not ever be forgotten. I love you so much, Fly high sweet angel. □

“I lived next door to Margaret for 4 years. I didn't know her well but I knew her well enough to know she was a good person. She loved seeing my flamboyant granddaughter and her glitter boots and she always got a kick out of my being mean to the other neighbors. She was the perfect neighbor and she will be missed.

“ There are so many words that could describe my Margaret. She was so amazing! Like a 2nd mom. Overly caring. She loved me and told me daily how much she loved me. She put so much trust in me. She was a well loved person. We were all like family. But now a piece of my heart is missing. There will never be a person like her. That's why I'm giving her the farewell she deserves. Love you so much Margaret!
