“ Trent came too early and left to early but in his short lifetime he made more of an impact on more people than most people make in a very long lifetime. He was a model son, always loving and looking after his mom. The smile everyone talks about was real and lit up the room when he entered and his eyes twinkled when he flashed that smile. The stories we heard of how he helped others & the friend he was to so many - well it was beyond amazing . We heard so many stories - the circumstances different but always the same loving, caring, smiling Trent in each one. He was a one of a kind jewel in this life and will be missed by so many. I am so happy he finally found his true love, Stacy, and I'm so sorry they didn't get more time together. My prayers go out to Pat, Stacy and all the family & friends who loved him. Thanks for the big bear hugs, smiles & your sweet loving heart you always showed & gave to me. The Good News is one day we can see him again. Until then Trent, enjoy heaven until we get there. ❤️

“ Just wanted to give Trent's family my deepest condolences Only knew him at the Indianapolis terminal which he always gave a big smile and a wave from behind his computer If he had time he would chat I had not seen him for awhile Just thought maybe he was working at a different time as I drive out of Ft Wayne Ind I'm in and out but Trent always went out of his way to acknowledge my presence and thought that that was something I had been with the company for twenty six years He will be sadly missed- Doyle Ruble

“ We are still trying to come to grips with this. Our family was always so close growing up and I always looked forward to seeing my cool older cousins when we got together. Trent was such a great guy and i always looked up to him - he was soft spoken but thoughtful and funny. I'm sorry we couldn't make it to Tennessee, but our thoughts and prayers are with Pat and everybody right now.

“ Some of my favorite childhood memories are those made on Christmas night at my grandparents house, with all of my ants, uncles, and cousins. I can't think about those times without seeing Trent wearing that huge, warm smile that spread over his whole face, making his eyes shine. Anyone lucky enough to be nearby couldn't help but smile right along with him. He was a gentle soul. I feel so blessed to call him my cousin. I know there has been an amazing celebration up in Heaven, welcoming him Home. I wish I could be there for his celebration of life. My thoughts are with Pat, family, and friends as they celebrate Trent together.

“ I was one of Trent's basketball coaches at Lee-Davis High School in Mechanicsville. He was one of several seniors who generously welcomed me. He was an undersized but crafty, competitive, and hard-working post player who could score on just about anyone. He helped us win some games where our talent level wasn't probably equal to our opponents', and he was always a joy to be around, always with a big smile. Although that was long ago, memories are vivid. Real teammates always remember each other, and Trent was a great teammate. I can't imagine that he was anything less as a man. Rest in peace. Best to all family and friends.

“ I moved from Maryland to Mechanicsville, Va. when I was thirteen years old. We moved into Liberty Hall Hills and I met Trent, Kirk and Robby Farmer. I can't tell you how much that I appreciated Trent's friendship and how nice of a person he was. I'm so sorry for your loss!!!

“ We love uncle T and he was always so funny and nice to us. He treated us like we were his own and spoiled us rotten! He always told us "give me a biscuit" and we'd put our fist up, he'd always make us laugh and we love him and will miss our Uncle Trent. - Bella and Rissy.

“ Another Barrett has gone to be with the Lord. Im so sorry Pat. That smile,that chuckle and that twinkle in his eye. I will never forget you Trent. I will forever love you and never forget you. “ Trent, you truly are the very definition of a "Gentle Giant"! You came into this world early at a tiny 2 pounds 10 ounces, and now you have left us too early. You brought such joy to your family, always the brightest smile on your face, a loyal friend, and not a mean bone in your body. Though we regretfully didn't get to see you like we would have enjoyed, you were always in our hearts and prayers. We all loved you so very much, but no one more than your Mom, Pat, and your girlfriend, Stacy. Now they have an angel to keep watch over them.
I know you are with the rest of the Barrett and Berry families, and they are celebrating the reunion!
Miss you, but will see you again one day!
Love,
Rita and Buddy

“Trent, you were loved by so very many and will be missed by so many. You were always so very special to me and Wayne. I will always cherish those Great Big Bear Hugs I would get from you every time I would see you. I will also cherish the wonderful memories of our times at Grandma's house for Thanksgiving and Christmas. I will always hold on to that wonderful Great Big Smile you always had. May you rest in peace and enjoy the great moments you will now share with all of the Barrett's in heaven waiting for you with open arms.

I love you
