

Mr. Michael D. Sanders

September 11, 2022

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit" Psalm 34:18

Michael Dale Sanders, 68, of Johnson City, TN, was called by his Heavenly Father into Eternity on Sunday, September 11, 2022, at his home surrounded by his loving family following a battle with cancer.

Michael was born on July 15, 1954, the fifth child of the late William "PJ" and Ann Catherine Turner Sanders in Johnson City, Tennessee.

He attended Science Hill High School and graduated from Vocational Technical School in Honolulu, Hawaii. Michael served his country as an Artillery Maintenance Supervisor in the United States Marine Corps. After his honorable discharge, he returned to Johnson City and was employed by Eastman Chemical Company as a mechanic for several years.

Michael grew up with his parents and siblings attending St. Paul AME Zion Church.

His star shone brightly in the community as being a "jack of all trades" with a "big heart" and willingness to help anyone. His passions included being a Pittsburgh Steelers fan and working on cars.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one brother, George Sanders; one sister, Janice Sanders Nelson; and one brother-in-law, George Nelson.

Michael is survived by one son, Michael Madison (Merika); two grandchildren, Michael II and Mykaelah; three brothers, William "Hot Shot" Sanders, Alan Sanders (Lisa), and Arthur Sanders (Angela); two sisters, Angela Sanders (Art) and Gail Sanders; his oldest aunt of 98 years, Virginia Sanders Goines; several nephews and nieces, aunts, uncles, and a host of cousins.

The family wishes to express a heartfelt thanks to Caris Home Health Care and the many people who have assisted with Michael's care over the past months.

Celebration of life services for Mr. Michael Sanders will be conducted Monday, September 19, 2022, at 11:30 am from the Chapel of Love at Birchette Mortuary & Cremation Service. The family will receive friends from 10:30 am until the hour of service. Burial will follow at the VA National Cemetery, Mt. Home, TN.
