“ Oh my gosh. I could write a book here. Mrs. Manuel was like part of the Woolwine Family when we lived on Chilhowie and were neighbors for many years. She was the kindest, sweetest and most personable person you would ever want to know. My mother, Geneva Woolwine and Mrs. Manuel would carry on conversations for what seemed to be hours from their front porches. There would be times they would eventually leave the front porch and talk to each other on one porch or the other. When I would mow, my mom would sweep the street close to our property and so would Mrs. Manuel. Those were the days. I will miss her but I know my mother and Mrs. Manuel are still carrying on those conversations in Heaven. I bless the family and know she is at rest and peace. God has been good to her.

“ I am so saddened to learn of Miss Mollie’s passing. The Goines- Manuel families were always dear friends of my parents, the late William and Mary Elizabeth Hart. I have spent many nights in the Manuel home in Johnson City as a child and teenager with my friend, Cassandra. Although there is a void here on earth, what a joyous reunion is going on in Heaven as the families are celebrating before the Throne of God. Rest high on that mountain Miss Molly! To all of the children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and extended family, May God send His Comforter to you and give you peace. I send my love to all.
