“ This one really hurt me to my core! Mesha was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Johnson City, she was also my neighbor. Her laugh was contagious and she was so much fun to be around. My kids loved her and still talk about her from time to time. I miss her so much, we had plans to go on a trip once I got out of prison so when I got the news I was devastated. You are missed down here lady but God needed another Angel and that had to be you! I love you! Your friend Angel or as you would say "DeBerry"

Family,

You're in our thoughts and prayers. May your hearts be comforted with many beautiful memories of the JOY that was Ramisha! She helped translate at a wedding I directed years ago. There was never a dull moment! Be encouraged and be blessed in knowing she's at peace in the presence of the Lord. 🙏

Love,
