

Mr. Ronnie McClellan

June 26, 1967 - March 20, 2026

Ronnie Mack McClellan, 58, of Kingsport, Tennessee, passed away on March 20, 2026. He was born on June 26, 1967, in Elizabethton, Tennessee.

Ronnie was a good man, father, and grandfather who took immense pride in his family. He is survived by his wife, Rena; his son, James; his daughter, Cassondra; his son, Reggie; and his cherished grandchildren, Rheya, Zander, and Aaron, whom he affectionately called his “grandnuggets.”

A hardworking man with strong, old-school values, Ronnie believed in doing your best and never shying away from a challenge. He approached life with a “can-do” attitude, often viewing problems as puzzles to be solved rather than obstacles. His dedication and willingness to lend a hand made a lasting impression on those he worked with, many of whom proudly called him not just a coworker, but a friend as well.

Ronnie found peace and happiness in the outdoors. Whether he was camping, fishing, gardening, or simply sitting outside admiring nature, he made the most of every moment. He loved being surrounded by the beauty of the world and sharing those simple joys with his family.

He will be remembered for his warm and welcoming spirit, often greeting others with a cheerful “Hey Cuzz,” and for his sense of humor that could brighten any room. Ronnie had a gift for lifting others up and making people feel at ease, leaving behind countless memories filled with laughter and kindness.

Ronnie Mack McClellan will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. His legacy of hard work, love for family, and unwavering positivity will live on in the hearts of those he leaves behind.
