

Sadie Davenport

January 18, 2016

Sadie Mae Looney Davenport went to her heavenly resting place on Monday, January 18, 2016 surrounded by family after a lengthy illness. She was a faithful member of Mount Olive Baptist Church for many years until her health prohibited her from attending. However she continued to be a member of the church's senior ministry even while she was homebound.

She was born in 1929 and was the daughter of the late Roy Looney and the late Dorothy Cash Looney. She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Nathaniel Davenport, and her son Robert L. Branch, Jr.

Sadie enjoyed reading her Bible, books and magazines, shopping, gardening and bowling when her health permitted. She was especially proud of her only granddaughter who was her pride and joy, Alaina Nicole Bradley and she was so proud to see her graduate from ETSU in 2014.

She leaves behind her beloved granddaughter, Alaina Nicole Bradley, her daughter Diane Bradley (Joseph) of Johnson City; her son Michael Branch (Missy) of Johnson City; her uncle Reverend Elihue Looney of Athens, Tennessee and several cousins and special friends.

Homegoing services will be held on Monday, January 25, 2016 at Mount Olive Baptist Church, 810 Montgomery Street, Johnson City, Tennessee with visitation from 12:00pm to 1:00pm, prior to the services.
