“ I will never forget the night 50 chess players played International Grandmaster Maurice Ashley in Albany/Colonie , NY. Many players crowded around someone who they thought would draw or beat the grandmaster. It was Sherman who got a draw against Mr. Ashley. It was Sherman who encouraged me to go to chess tournaments. It was Sherman who took me to tournament chess players I would have never met. For me, the first thing he did was put a simple sign on a wall in the staircase of the Albany Public Library. The sign read "Chess", and it had an arrow pointing upstairs. Sherman, rest in peace!!! You have no idea what you started by doing that. You brought me back to the game I love, and I went on to teach children our beloved game for 10 years. A National Chess Expert has emerged in Albany, and he will soon be a National Master. We played hundreds of games at Stewart's Shops over coffee. I will never forget you. Nate Stevens.
