“Mrs. Norris was such a vital part of the community and contributed generously through her demeanor as a "woman of God" in her roles as wife, mother, aunt, friend, and educator. She always encouraged and "lifted" people even when their circumstances seemed dire. Those of us who were blessed to know her can keep her legacy alive by simply adhering to those principles by purposely making a difference in our neighborhoods one deed at a time. Heaven is even brighter as one more "saint" has been greeted by those who went before and oh how Mr. Norris must have smiled to greet his beloved. May God bless each of you, daughter, son, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, god-son, extended family as you move through days ahead. There will be tears but. "in the stillness of the midnight precious memories will unfold." Take comfort in the memories and live your days in the manner so that you will see her again.
