“ I was an infusion nurse in the treatment room where Tracy came for therapy. When Tracy would walk into that room, the dynamics of the room instantly changed...everyone became happier and “lighter” somehow. She always befriended whomever was sitting beside her and managed to make other patients smile. She was generous with anything she had—smiles, hugs, love, advice, chocolate chip cookies and lemon cake❤️.

There will never be another Tracy.

I won't forget her.

“ Tracy, was a beautiful inside and out. We have been friends for years since elementary school and girls club..In middle school we had art class together in Mrs Johnson class....Tracy would bring potato chips to class and when the teacher was turned around writting on the board we would crunch down on the chip...(it would make a loud sound) Mrs Johnson would turn around and wanted to know who was making that sound and we would say..we don't know and laugh when she turned back around...My mom went to Grace Temple and loved it..Preacher Redd would call on my mom to testify about the lord..she would start out saying....Praise the lord brother Redd..Everytime I seen Tracy...out loud in the stores when she seen me....she was yell.. praise the lord brother Redd..and we would laugh and laugh..The most precious memory of Tracy is when my mom died..we was at the grave site and as it was getting over I turned around and there was beautiful Tracy embracing and giving me the biggest HUG..telling me she was so sorry for my loss..and said she loved my mom..I'll miss seeing her around...I love her she always made me laugh and smile..Praying for her entire family..Tracy is an Angel👼now and was truly an Angel👼on earth..I will miss her..I love you Tracy Hamilton you was one of my greatest friend❤️

“ Tracy Tracy heaven is singing now for the choir has an added addition. One of my most memorable student. She was one of the most joyous student to have in class. Her laughter got her out of situations everyday in class. She was a wonderful student and gave her all if she liked what she was doing. Going to Nashville, Gatlinburg, Charlotte to an African American church, going to the beach and showing me her tan lines!! She was more than a student for she would speak to me no matter where I ran into her. Family know she is with Jesus for Easter and to be taken home on Holy week is an achievement that any Christian would love to do. Please lean on the many memories you have of Tracy. She is loved as all my former students are. Take care and when you gather remember her laughter, compassion, stories, mischievous way, and beautiful smile.
Love in Christ. Ms. Whitehead (Glenda McCracken).
