“ Ty you will always be my cheet. That’s what we would say every time we seen each other. I hadn’t seen you in years. And if I would have known you was gonna be leaving us this soon, I would have hugged you a little tighter last week at the hair shop. We was so excited to see each other. You will be missed. Rest easy “Cheet”❤️

“ When I was new to Johnson city in tenth grade, I didn't really know anyone. I rode the same bus as Tylisha and I was kind of quiet initially but she was always saying “what's up white boy, why you so quiet?” I told her I didn't really know anybody and she introduced herself and said well now you know me. She was always a beautiful energy to have around, always joking and laughing. She was one of the coolest people I ever knew. Glad to call her a friend, R.I.P. Ty! You're loved and missed by so many!

“ Our daughters were best friends... this news is unbelievable. Ty you were a good friend and a great mama to both Kyla and Jamell. Your family and friends will always keep your memory alive. We will always watch over your babies. I'll miss our long talks as we dropped the girls off at each other's houses. I'll miss us joking about Jamell being a power ranger and always jumping around. The family is in my thoughts and my prayers.

“ A beautiful woman & soul gone too soon. I'm at a loss for words... you are an amazing woman and mother who will always be remembered, honored and never forgotten. Fly high and rest peacefully sweet angel. Light up heaven the same way you lit up any room you walked into down here; light it up with your beautiful smile and your love; You're gonna be the best guardian angel there ever was. Keep it real 100 100, fly high and rest peacefully my dear friend. Until I see you again you have my love and a special place in my heart always!! My love, thoughts and prayers to all your little ones, your family and friends.
